DETAILED ACTION

This application has been examined. Claims 1-25 are pending.

Priority

This application claims benefits of priority from Foreign Application 10245169.9 (GERMANY) filed September 26, 2002.

The effective date of the claims described in this application is September 26, 2002.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 09/23/2003, 12/29/2003 is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 2144

Claims 5, 21 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 5, 21 recites a limitation 'wherein said server makes said required information available in timely manner'. The term "timely manner" is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "timely manner" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-6,8,12-14, 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Frees (US Patent 6769013).

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 1,18,19) a system based on electronic data exchange, in which the data exchange occurs between a plurality of users by means of at least one data exchange system and each of said users is operable as both a server and a receiver of information, (Frees-Figure 16, Figure 17,Column 2 Lines 25-35) wherein at least one user of at least one data transmission network generates required information according to specific standards,(Frees-Column 15 Lines 15-20) said at least one user functioning as said server, (Frees-Column 12 Lines 60-65)

and at least one other user of said at least one data transmission network retrieves the required information and/or edits the required information generated by the at least one user, (Frees-Column 30-35) adjusted according to needs of the at least one other user, (Frees-Column 20-25) said at least one other user functioning as said receiver.

(Frees-Column 15 Lines 35-40)

Art Unit: 2144

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 2,19) wherein said server makes said required information, adjusted to said needs of said at least one other user, available to said at least one other user in the form of a service. (Frees-Column 7 Lines 20-30)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 3) wherein server groups identify themselves as services that are accessible to said at least one user. (Frees-Column 5 Lines 1-5, Column 7 Lines 20-30)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 4,20) wherein said server defines access rights to said service. (Frees-Column 11 Lines 25-30)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 5,21) wherein said server makes said required information available in timely manner as part of said service and makes said required information, adjusted to said needs of said at least one other user operating as said receiver, available to said at least one other user. (Frees-Column 2 Lines 25-35)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 6,22) wherein said receiver generates question postings, which are transmitted by means of said at least one data transmission network to said server providing said service and wherein said service of said server comprises answering said question postings. (Frees-Column 15 Lines 35-40)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 8) wherein said service of said server is permanently or temporarily connected as need requires to said receiver generating said question postings. (Frees-Column 5 Lines 10-15)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 12) wherein said server providing said service is a stationary unit or a mobile unit and wherein said stationary unit or said mobile unit communicates via said at least one data exchange system with said receiver and/or said server. (Frees-Column 4 Lines 40-50)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 13) wherein said server and said receiver alternately exchange said required information by means of said at least one data exchange system. (Frees-Figure 1B, Column 6 Lines 10-15, Column 12 Lines 65)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 14) wherein said at least one data exchange system is global or spatially limited. (Frees-Column 5 Lines 40-50, Column 12 Lines 55-60)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 16) wherein said information generated by said users in said data transmission network is generated in a standardized format. (Frees-Column 18 Lines 1-5)

Frees disclosed (re. Claim 17) wherein said users comprise machines and/or businesses engaged in planting, caring for, harvesting, storing and/or processing of agricultural products; machine manufacturers; (Frees-Column 5 Lines 40-45) weather services; crop advisory services and planting advisors and wherein said required information includes data for optimizing a processing chain and/or a management chain for producing said agricultural products.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 15 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frees (US Patent 6769013) as applied above, and further in view of Curkendall (US Patent 6995675).

While Frees substantially disclosed the claimed invention, Frees did not disclose (re. Claim 15) wherein said stationary unit or said mobile unit have sensors for generating receiver-specific information, and said receiver-specific information is made available to at least one service provider and/or at least one further receiver by means of said at least one data exchange system.

Curkendall disclosed (re. Claim 15) wherein said stationary unit or said mobile unit have sensors for generating receiver-specific information, (Curkendall-Column 21 Lines 15-25) and said receiver-specific information is made available to at least one service provider and/or at least one further receiver by means of said at least one data exchange system. (Curkendall-Column 21 Lines 55-60)

Frees and Curkendall are analogous art because they present concepts and practices regarding collaboration and knowledge exchanges. At the time of the invention it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the networking art to combine Curkendall into Frees. The motivation for said combination would have been to provide data collection in a seamless manner. (Curkendall-Column 5 Lines 55-60)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 7,9-11, 23-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frees (US Patent 6769013) as applied above, and further in view of Rothkopf (US Publication 2002/0049727)

While Frees substantially disclosed the invention as claimed, Frees did not disclose (re. Claim 7) wherein said service of said server comprises referring to at least one other service of at least one other server and/or to sub-service providers.

Rothkopf disclosed (re. Claim 7) wherein said service of said server comprises referring to at least one other service of at least one other server and/or to sub-service providers. (Rothkopf-Paragraph 97-98)

Frees and Rothkopf are analogous art because they present concepts and practices regarding collaboration and knowledge exchanges. At the time of the invention it would have been obvious to combine Rothkopf into Frees. The motivation for said combination would have been to provide highly customized information sharing between users of common interest. (Rothkopf-Paragraph 5)

Claim 23 is rejected on the same basis as Claim 7.

Frees-Rothkopf disclosed (re. Claim 9,24) wherein said service of said server provides additional information that is not expressly required by said receiver, which increases service quality provided by said server. (Rothkopf-Paragraph 78)

Frees-Rothkopf disclosed (re. Claim 10,25) wherein said server providing said service obtains said additional information by retrieving said additional information from another service provided by another service provider. (Rothkopf-Paragraph 78)

Frees-Rothkopf disclosed (re. Claim 11) wherein services of a plurality of service providers are made available to said receiver by said server and/or a selection of said services is made available to said receiver by a number of different service providers. (Rothkopf-Paragraph 97-98)
